BACKGROUND

Rainy River Community College was founded in 1967 when a group of International Falls citizens convinced the Minnesota legislature to establish a college in their community. This community continues a strong partnership with the college.

The college’s students number about 500 per term, and come from this community, throughout Minnesota, the U.S., Canada and from other foreign countries. They range in age from 16 to 84. The college serves Post Secondary Enrollment Option students from local high schools to senior citizens fulfilling their desire for lifelong learning. The average age of our graduates is 24. Over 90 percent will receive some financial aid. Ten percent of the students are from underrepresented racial/ethnic groups.

Rainy River Community College received a 10-year accreditation from the Higher Learning Commission in 1999 and the next evaluation by the Higher Learning Commission is scheduled for 2008-2009. In 2002, Rainy River Community College joined the Higher Learning Commission’s Academic Quality Improvement Project (AQIP) which allows for a continuous process of review and improvement.

Mission, Vision and Purposes Application Analysis

The vision, proposed mission and purposes of Rainy River Community College meet the criteria identified in MnSCU Board Policy 3.24 System and Institutional Missions, Part 2: Review and Approval of MnSCU Institutional Missions.

As required by procedure, the institution must indicate:

a. How its mission and vision respond to the definitions in procedure 3.24.1.

b. The extent to which the institution will meet expectations of law, how it relates to other institutions of higher education, and how its mission, vision and purposes support fulfillment of the system mission and vision.

c. Its purposes and the array of awards it offers.

d. How the new mission compares with the former mission.

e. Ample consultation with faculty, students, employers and other essential stakeholders.
Additionally, the institution’s mission must be compliant with statute, policy, and regional accreditation requirements.

Review of Rainy River Community College’s Mission, Vision and Purposes

Rainy River Community College’s vision, proposed mission and purposes meet the requirements stated in this procedure.

a. The mission and vision respond to the definitions in the procedure:

Rainy River Community College’s proposed mission is “Rainy River Community College serves its communities by guiding learners to achieve their educational, career, personal, and civic goals.” Rainy River Community College’s proposed mission emphasizes that the college aims to prepare learners for the different roles they play as learner, worker, citizen and community member. It also stresses that the college guides the learner in this process. Overall, Rainy River Community College wants to work in partnership with learners so they achieve their goals.

The proposed mission for Rainy River Community College is guided by a vision that reads “Rainy River Community College will inspire learners and their communities to achieve their full potential.” Rainy River Community College envisions a future in which it remains a central resource that inspires individual learners and their communities to identify and reach their full potential.

Rainy River Community College is a fully accredited institution of higher education that has consistently worked with many other colleges and universities, community organizations, and K-12 schools.

The Rainy River Community College vision, proposed mission and purposes are consistent with statute, policy, and regional accreditation requirements. Rainy River Community College’s proposed mission supports fulfillment of the Minnesota State College and Universities system vision and mission intention of providing high quality, accessible future-oriented higher education, relevant research and community service. The proposed Rainy River Community College mission also supports the following system goals:

- Strategic Direction One – Increase Access and Opportunity by making programs and services available that guide learners to achieve their educational, career, personal and civic goals.
- Strategic Direction Two – Expand High Quality Learning Programs and Services by guiding learners to achieve their career, personal and civic goals.
- Strategic Direction Three – Strengthen Community Development and Economic Vitality by guiding learners to achieve their career and civic goals.

c. Its purposes and the array of awards it offers:

Date Presented to the Board of Trustees: October 19, 2004
Date of Approval: Wednesday October 20, 2004
Rainy River Community College’s purposes are:

1. Recruit and retain the wide variety of students best served by the college’s program and services.
2. Review and develop academic and technical programs that best serve the college’s students and communities.
3. Pursue collaboration with community, government, business and education organizations to improve teaching and learning and enhance community vitality.
4. Encourage and empower faculty, staff, students and community members to guide the college.

Rainy River Community College offers Associate in Arts Degree, Associate in Science Degree, Applied Science Degree, and various Diploma and Certificate programs.

Students who complete the Associate in Arts Degree at Rainy River Community College, which includes the Minnesota Transfer Curriculum, are assured of smooth transfer into state colleges and universities as well as into specific programs at the University of Minnesota.

d. How the new mission compares with the former mission.

The former mission of Rainy River Community College is, “Rainy River Community College provides an accessible, student-centered learning environment, and promotes academic achievement, personal development, employment opportunities, and community involvement.” The new mission reads, “Rainy River Community College serves its communities by guiding learners to achieve their educational, career, personal, and civic goals.” The new mission retains the emphasis on academic achievement, personal development, employment preparation and community service because these are timeless goals of the institution and of public two-year colleges. The primary difference in the new mission is that it emphasizes that the college guides learners to develop knowledge and skills so they can succeed at a wide variety of important roles in their lives. These roles include learner, worker, citizen, and community-member.

e. Ample consultation with faculty, students, employers and other essential stakeholders.

The proposed mission, vision and purpose statements for Rainy River Community College were developed with a process that involved faculty, staff, administration, students, and community members. College leaders used a cross-functional committee of faculty, staff, students and administrators worked over the course of an academic year to review relevant community and college data to craft a mission statement that reflected the core reason for the college’s existence. In addition, draft versions of the mission were submitted to all college faculty staff and administrators for their review and comment. The draft mission was also shared with key community members for their input.
