4. Board Policy Decisions

a. FY 2010 Operating Budget Request Including Tuition and Fees

   Trustee Thomas Renier moved that the Board of Trustees approve the following motion:

   Per Board Policy 5.9, the Board will be periodically provided systemwide budget updates for all funding sources on an exception reporting basis.

   The percentage impact of residence tuition rates represents the maximum amount that can be applied to other tuition rates charged by the college or university not impacted by reciprocity agreements, such as nonresident and off-campus rates.

1. The tuition increase is effective Summer Term or Fall Term 2009 at the discretion of the president. The Chancellor is authorized to approve tuition structures for new courses or programs proposed after this date, as well as any required technical adjustments, and is requested to incorporate any approvals at the time fiscal year 2011 tuition recommendations are presented to the Board. The Board continues the policy of market-driven tuition for closed enrollment courses, customized training, non-credit instruction, continuing education, distance learning, and contract postsecondary enrollment options programs.

c. Approved the use of American Recover and Reinvestment Act (ARRA) funds to mitigate tuition increases in fiscal year 2010.

d. Approved the increase in the student union facility fee from a maximum of $280.00 per year to $300.00 per year.

Trustee Jacob Englund seconded and the motion carried unanimously.
b. Proposed Policy 4.11 Board Early Separation Incentive Program (Second Reading)

Trustee Grendahl moved that the Board of Trustees adopts Policy 4.11 Board Early Separation Incentive Program. Trustee James Van Houten seconded and the motion carried unanimously.

c. Metropolitan Area Planning

Trustee Dan McElroy moved that the Board of Trustees direct the Minnesota State Colleges and Universities to expand access to baccalaureate and graduate programs in the Twin Cities metropolitan area through immediate action and long-range planning. Expanded programs should offer competitive, attractive opportunities for Twin Cities residents and serve workforce needs of the changing Twin Cities economy. All programming should meet high standards for quality and cost-effective use of the investment provided by Minnesota taxpayers and students.

The Board approved the following core strategies to guide continuing work by the Office of the Chancellor and universities and colleges serving the metropolitan area.

1. Strengthened partnerships between Metropolitan State University and the ten metropolitan colleges.
2. Additional partnerships between metropolitan area colleges and carefully chosen non-metropolitan state universities when necessary to supplement the program capacity of Metropolitan State University.
3. Assigning responsibility to the institution that demonstrates the ability to offer a high quality program at the lowest cost when selecting among several potential programs that could address a need in the Twin Cities.
4. Online delivery and collaborative programs and services that conserve resources and expand access.
5. Marketing that promotes the strength and power of the Minnesota State Colleges and Universities system to offer full range of programs – associate, baccalaureate and graduate degrees – in the metropolitan area.
6. Students First and other information technology improvements that aid institutional partnerships and student mobility by creating common administrative processes at system institutions.
7. Facilities on the campuses of Metropolitan State University and the metropolitan area colleges to support expanded opportunities for baccalaureate and graduate education.
8. Development by Metropolitan State University of a Master Facilities Plan which incorporates a metropolitan-wide programming strategy to guide facilities planning.
9. Selected leasing when on-campus facilities are not available or appropriate to serve the student market.
10. Investment of additional resources at Metropolitan State University to accelerate its growth in programs and facilities, when feasible within the constraints of meeting other system obligations.

Trustee Christine Rice seconded and the motion carried unanimously.

   Learns. One of the co-authors is Curtis Johnson, a former president of Minneapolis Community and Technical College.

9. Chancellor’s Comments
   Chancellor McCormick welcomed the Trustees, staff and constituents to the meeting. Chancellor McCormick thanked the Trustees for their approval in his performance appraisal.
Chancellor McCormick commented on the loss of two students and an alumnus. Specialist Carlos Wilcox was a graduate of Metropolitan State University in 2008; Specialist Daniel Drevnick matriculated at Century College; and Ma Le, was an international student at Winona State University. Chancellor McCormick also announced the passing of two former university presidents: Robert Bess, St. Cloud State University, 1992-1995, and Douglas Sweetland, Southwest Minnesota State University, 1994-2000.

Chancellor McCormick stated that the 2009 - 2012 strategic plan is a good blueprint of the action plan and the goals for the system. He continued that the goals are on course, and he suggested ideas for discussion at the retreat, including: closing the gap in college-going rates; educating consumers for a globally competitive world; and education and training the workforce for success.

Chancellor McCormick commented on a recent report from The College Board on “Access, Admissions and Success in Higher Education,” noting that it is similar to the system’s goals regarding access and opportunity. A specific goal of the commission is by 2025, that at least 55 percent of Americans will hold a postsecondary credential.

Chancellor McCormick commented on a State Higher Education Executive Officers (SHEEO) article printed in Change magazine from late last year which suggested much of the language found in the Student Aid and Fiscal Responsibility Act of 2009. Chancellor McCormick attended the SHEEO annual meeting in July and reported that he was elected the national SHEEO chair commencing in October 2009. Chancellor McCormick remarked that he was grateful to Chair Olson for his support in accepting the role and responsibilities. The SHEEO annual conference will be in Minneapolis next year.

Chancellor McCormick commented that the word "completion" has taken on a new level of power in higher education circles, and he suggests that it be added to the first strategic direction to read, “Increase access, completion, and opportunity.”

Chancellor McCormick announced that Vice Chancellor Ken Niemi plans to retire from his position at the end of this December.

Chancellor McCormick reported that the Luoma Leadership Academy is going strong, and he remarked that he is proud of the systemwide participation. Chancellor McCormick concluded his remarks with his thanks to the Trustees for their time.
