Part 1. Presidents. The president is the chief executive officer of the college or university. The president shall report to the chancellor and is responsible for leading the college and/or university faculty, staff and students in developing and implementing the college or university mission, consistent with the Board mission and goals. The president is the primary spokesperson for college and/or university interests and shall regularly consult with students, faculty, staff and members of the community. The president shall advise the chancellor, the staff of the system office, and the Board of Trustees on matters of system policy as appropriate, and otherwise administer and support all Minnesota State Colleges and Universities policies and programs. The president shall also lead in generating and sustaining the university/college vision as an integral part of the Minnesota State Colleges and Universities system. The duties and responsibilities of the president shall include, but not be limited to, adhering to Board policies and system procedures, employing personnel, providing innovative educational leadership, allocating campus resources, and implementing the Board's strategic plan.

Part 2. Appointment of Acting Presidents. Upon advance notification to the chair of the Board, the Chancellor may appoint an acting president for the period of the president's approved leave of absence.

Part 3. Appointment of Interim Presidents. An interim president may be appointed upon the recommendation of the chancellor and approval by the Board, to temporarily fill a vacant presidency for a term of up to one year with the option to extend the appointment for additional periods.

Part 42. Presidential Appointments. Presidents are appointed by the Board upon the recommendation of the chancellor. The chancellor shall utilize one of the following options in recommending a presidential appointment to the Board.

Subpart A. Acting President. Upon advance notification to the board chair, the chancellor may appoint an acting president for the period of an incumbent president's approved leave of absence.

Subpart B. Interim President. An interim president may be appointed upon the recommendation of the chancellor and approval by the Board, to temporarily fill a vacant presidency for a term of up to one year with the option to extend the appointment for additional periods.
Subpart C. President. Minnesota State Colleges and Universities is committed to hiring extraordinary leaders who meet the needs of colleges, universities, and their communities through a selection process that is broadly consultative and transparent. The board chair and chair of the board’s human resources committee oversee the presidential selection process. The chancellor will provide regular updates to the chairs throughout the process. The chancellor shall use one of the following options in recommending a presidential appointment to the board.

1. Subpart A. Search. When there is a presidential vacancy, it is the board’s expectation that a search will be conducted. An acting or interim president shall not be considered as a candidate in a search process for the presidency. When there is a presidential vacancy, the chancellor will normally conduct a search for a president. Whenever a search is to be conducted, the chancellor or designee shall establish a search committee to assist in the process. The committee members shall be knowledgeable of the duties and responsibilities of the position to be filled and broadly representative of the interests of the administrators, faculty, staff, students, community and friends of the institution. The chancellor, with at least one (1) and up to three (3) members of the Board of Trustees, shall interview selected finalists. The chancellor shall recommend a candidate for president of a college and/or university and the Board shall make the appointment. An acting or interim president shall not be considered as a candidate in a search process for the presidency.

2. Subpart B. Search Waiver. The board may waive the search process and appoint a candidate who best fits the needs of the college or university and the system. Consideration of a waiver is initiated by a written recommendation to the board by the chancellor. The board must determine the waiver is in the best interests of the system. If, upon a written recommendation of the Chancellor, the Board determines it is in the best interests of the system, they may waive the search process and appoint a candidate that best fits the needs of the institution and the system.

Part 3. Search Process

Subpart A. Initial consultation. At the start of each search, the chancellor shall solicit input from internal and external constituent groups at the affected college or university about the qualities sought in the new president.

Subpart B. Appointment of search advisory committee. The chancellor shall appoint a local presidential search advisory committee and name the chair of the committee. The committee will identify presidential candidates and make recommendations of candidates to the chancellor.

Subpart C. Application review and screening interviews. The search advisory committee shall have access to all application materials received. The committee shall select candidates to interview and conduct initial screening interviews. The committee shall forward the names to the chancellor of the candidates they believe should be considered to continue in the process, along with detailed assessments of the relative strengths and weaknesses of each candidate.

Subpart D. Identification of candidates to visit campuses. Following receipt of input from the committee, the chancellor shall consider the committee’s assessment, as well as any reports from confidential referencing and background checks. The chancellor shall select two to four candidates to visit the college or university and participate in public meetings. The chancellor shall communicate with the committee on the rationale for the chancellor’s selection from the committee’s recommendations.

Subpart E. Opportunity for stakeholder meetings with candidates and stakeholder feedback. Once the finalists are publicly identified, internal and external stakeholders at the affected college or university shall be invited to meet with the candidates on campus. Following the candidate visits to campus, all internal and external stakeholders shall be invited to give confidential feedback directly to the chancellor.

Subpart F. Trustee participation. At least two and up to three members of the Board of Trustees will participate in interviews for the purpose of providing counsel to the chancellor in the formation of the chancellor’s recommendation to the board.

Subpart G. Chancellor’s recommendation to the Board of Trustees. The chancellor shall present the chancellor’s recommendation with a detailed explanation to the board which includes what the internal and external stakeholders expressed about the qualities the new president needs and how the chancellor’s recommended candidate fits that description.

Subpart H. Communication throughout the search process. The chair of the search advisory committee is responsible for communication about the search. Throughout the search process, the chair shall provide regular updates to the committee and shall work with college or university staff to post updates on the search website, as appropriate, so that the broader community has the opportunity to follow the public process from start through completion. Following the conclusion of the search, the committee meet to be debriefed on the search.

Subpart I. Notification to the board of unsuccessful search. The chancellor will notify the board in writing that a search was unsuccessful when none of the interviewed candidates resulting from the search are acceptable.

Subpart A. Charge. The search advisory committee is advisory to the chancellor as the chancellor develops a recommendation to the board. Committee members shall serve as stewards on behalf of the interests of the entire college or university community.
Subpart B. Composition. Committee members shall be knowledgeable of the duties and responsibilities of the position to be filled and broadly representative of the interests of the faculty, staff, students, administration, community, alumni, and friends of the college or university.

1. Chair. The committee shall be chaired by a Minnesota State Colleges and Universities sitting or former president appointed by the chancellor.

2. Members.

   a. The chancellor will invite nominations for members of the committee from all internal stakeholder groups and from external stakeholders in the community.

   b. The chancellor shall seek to balance the committee to the extent possible in areas such as gender and other diversity; geographic diversity (multiple campuses); liberal arts and technical programs; and student-facing and back office staff. To facilitate committee balance, each constituency nominating a committee member shall submit more nominations than slots attributed to the constituency.

   c. The committee shall be comprised as follows:

      i. two members of the teaching faculty at an affected college or university selected by the faculty organization;
      ii. one member of the service faculty at an affected university nominated by the service faculty organization;
      iii. one student (two students for multi-campus colleges or universities) nominated by the student association;
      iv. one member from each additional affected college or university bargaining unit nominated by their bargaining unit;
      v. up to three members of the public with a connection to the affected college or university having knowledge of the affected college or university and its needs nominated by the public; and
      vi. two administrators who are employees at the affected college or university.

Subpart C. Committee support. The system office shall coordinate the overall search process, and provide training to the committee. The chief human resources officer of the affected college or university will be the liaison between the affected college or university and the committee and will provide professional human resources support to the committee. The chancellor may engage a professional search consultant to assist in the recruitment of candidates.
Subpart D. Expense reimbursement allowed. Members of the committee shall receive no compensation for their services, but shall be reimbursed for actual expenses incurred in performing services for the committee, consistent with expense procedures for state employees.

Part 5. Salaries. In consultation with the board chair and the chair of the human resources committee, the chancellor shall determine salaries for the position of president within the parameters of the Personnel Plan for MnSCU Administrators as approved by the board and within board approved salary ranges, and the chancellor is the designated appointing authority for all other personnel actions pursuant to Minnesota statutes.

Subpart A. Termination of Employment. The chancellor, upon advance notification to the chair of the board, may terminate a president in accordance with the Personnel Plan for MnSCU Administrators and, if applicable, the president's employment contract.

Subpart B. Contract Expiration. A president's employment ends upon expiration of the employment contract, unless otherwise provided in the employment contract. Expiration of a contract without extension or renewal does not constitute termination under this policy.

Related Documents:
- Policy 4.1 Personnel Plan for MnSCU Administrators

Policy History:

Date of Adoption: 11/18/98,
Date of Implementation: 11/18/98,
Date & Subject of Revisions: xx/xx/xxxx – (add information)

11/16/11 - Effective 1/1/12, the Board of Trustees amends all board policies to change the term "Office of the Chancellor" to "system office," and to make necessary related grammatical changes.7/18/07 - Amended Part 1 to clarify and update the language. Amended Part 6, Subpart A, Termination of Employment, the chancellor may terminate a president during the term of the presidential employment agreement with advance notice to the chair of the board.

Click here for additional 4.2 HISTORY POLICY CONTENT FORMAT:
Single underlining represents proposed new language.
Strikeouts represent existing language proposed to be eliminated or relocated.